3 November 2005

Excellency,

We have the honour to write to you in our respective capacities as Special Rapporteur on torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, Chairperson-Rapporteur of the Working Group on Arbitrary Detention, Special Rapporteur on the right of everyone to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health, Special Rapporteur on the independence of judges and lawyers, and Special Rapporteur on freedom of religion or belief.

We would like to thank you once again for the invitation extended to three of us on 27 October 2005 to visit the Department of Defense's detention facilities at Guantanamo Bay Naval Station, Cuba.

While we are looking forward to visiting the detention facility in Guantanamo Bay in accordance with standard "Terms of Reference for Fact-finding missions by Special Procedures", we also intend to carry out interviews with former detainees currently residing in third countries. In this regard, we would like to inform you that we are seeking the cooperation of the Governments of Afghanistan, France, Morocco, Pakistan and Spain in allowing us access to their respective countries to meet and conduct interviews with former detainees as well as with their legal representatives.

Please accept, Dear Ambassador, the assurances of our highest consideration.

Manfred Nowak
Special Rapporteur on the question of torture

Leandro Despouy
Special Rapporteur on the independence of judges and lawyers

Leila Zerrougui
Chairperson-Rapporteur of the Working Group on arbitrary detention

Paul Hunt
Special Rapporteur on the right of everyone to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health

Asma Jahangir
